

30th ANNUAL MEANJIN WRITERS' CAMP

Thursday 4 November – Sunday 7 November 2010

Please photocopy and distribute to:

Year 6, 7 & 8 Classroom and English Teachers, Teacher Librarians & Learning Support Teachers

The Brisbane Meanjin Local Council of ALEA invites applications from students in Years 6, 7 & 8 in both state and non-state schools to attend the 30th Annual Meanjin Writer's Camp.

The camp is conducted to encourage and develop talented young writers who will work with invited authors. Simon Higgins, Ross Clarke, Terry O'Connor, Sue Gough, Narelle Oliver and Pat Flynn are some of the authors who have attended the camp.

Planned Activities:

- Working with one of the invited authors in a workshop group
- Working in a short workshop group with a second author (Saturday afternoon for two hours)
- Exploring writing, talking about writing and writing
- Sharing writing
- Social activities with new friends

Students will need to submit four samples of their writing. Preference will be given to students who have not previously attended a Meanjin Writers' Camp.

Attention Teachers: If you are interested in attending to assist in the running of the camp, please contact us by email. It's a great PD experience!

For more information and application forms, visit the Meanjin website or email writers@meanjin.edu.au

Applications close
10 September
2010

www.meanjin.edu.au

Closing date for applications is 10 September 2010

* 10 Scholarships available this year. *******